Notes: This list of the Deities of the Chakras and Nadis as a set of names for use in Puja or Havan is a new addition to the Mantrabook. It was offered at the historic Guru Puja in London where Shri Mataji made Her Declaration. It is assumed, but not confirmed, that the list was composed by Shri Mataji before the Puja. Some names that She personally suggests after the list was recited have been incorporated at what seem the appropriate places. The translations are an addition.

The names are in the Dative Case as they appear in the transcript of the Puja; some of the names which weren't, have been put into the Dative case for the sake of consistency apart from the non-Sanskrit names of the Adi Gurus.

In the original tape the names are said in the mantra:

Om Twameva sākshāt Shri ..... namaḥ

This would be suitable for use in a Havan where we use this mantra form followed by 'Om Swāhā'.

There are some different versions of the Chakras above Sahasrāra, but the one given here is the simplest and most commonly used by Shri Mataji.
