A new feature of the 2024 edition is the ‘Songs for Chakras and Deities’ index on page 9.

This edited songbook includes the 280 most commonly sung songs in Sahaja Yoga world-wide (in the experience of the editors!). The full songbook would now be at least twice as large!

Keys: A higher pitch is often better for loud collective singing, so there is a suggested fret for the Capo to achieve this – usually 2nd or 3rd fret.

Notes on Sanskrit, Hindi and Marathi pronunciation

Sanskrit, Hindi and Marāṭhi are all written in Devanāgarī – ‘the Language of the Deities’ and are pronounced more or less the same way.

- 1 Vowels. The symbols ā, ī and ū are used for long vowels. Short a and long ā are different sounds, whereas long ī and ū are the short sounds lengthened.
 - Short a is the hardest vowel because it is so short. It is like the u in but or a in local – almost like saying the consonant without any vowel. Ganapati is ‘g-n-p-ti’ roughly like ‘gunner-putty’. ‘a’ is never hard as in bat.
 - Long ā as in cart, master (UK style) or Aachen
 - Long ī as in beet. Short i as in bit.
 - Long ū as in pool. (eg Mūlādhāra) Short u as in pull, not as fun - which is short a (unless you come from Yorkshire).
 - O is always long, as in modem, and never short as in modern. So Moksha is pronounced ‘moke-sha’, Om rhymes with ‘home’.
 - e is always long in Sanskrit, but can be short in Hindi and Marathi. Eka sounds like English ‘acre’. Words ending in e are pronounced long é.
 - au and ai are diphthongs; au as in ‘proud’ and ai as in ‘pride’.
 - The symbols ō and ē are used where a final o or e joins with short a at the beginning of the next word as in sthitō’si which is sthito+asi, or namastē’stu which is namaste+astu, so the vowel is lengthened.
- 2 The consonants with dots under ṭ ṭh ḍ ḍh ṇ ḷ and ṣh are pronounced with the tip of the tongue curled back against the roof of the mouth, with a half-r sound. (as in Gaṇeśha, Iḍa Naḍi, Gondaḷi etc.)
- 3 There are no labial fricatives in Sanskrit ie. th, v, f.; so th is an aspirated t as in boat’hook eg. Aṭharva. Both v and w are used in writing Sanskrit but are the same letter. Normally w is used when joined with another consonant, eg. twam, swāmī and v is used when on its own, eg. Shiva, Viṣṇu; The sound is halfway between v and w like ‘vw’ i.e. twam. Try saying it as ‘w’ with the upper teeth touching the lower lip.

Ph is aspirated p as in ‘map-holder’ and not f. eg. Phala – ‘fruit’.

- 4 Final h as in namah, namaḥ or namah^a is an aspiration of the final vowel and not an extra syllable. It normally sounds like nam.ha.
- 5 ṛ is a vowel, usually written ṛi, as in ṛitam or Kṛishna and sometimes ṛu, as in amṛut or gṛuha. Properly it should be written Kṛṣna, amṛt or gṛha. Be aware that there is no full vowel sound after the ṛ.
r as a vowel or a consonant should be rolled in the Scottish manner with the tongue curled back and not with the English tendency to elongate the vowel and drop the r (ie. ‘dark’ being pronounced ‘daak’)
- 6 The composite letter jñ is written gñy (eg. Āgñyā, gñyāna-‘knowledge’) It is pronounced –gya with the g nasalised.
g is always pronounced as in begin and not as in vegetable, which is j.
- 7 In Hindi and Marathi short a at the end of words and before long syllables is dropped so Rāma becomes Rām, Sulabhā becomes Sulbhā etc. This is not done in Sanskrit. This vestigial a is sometimes written as a full stop, as in sab.ko.
- 8 s is always unvoiced, ie. like hiss and not his.
- 9 In Marathi j is pronounced more like z, so ‘jog.wa’ sounds like ‘zog.wa’, and ch sounds like tz.
- 10 All other letters are pronounced roughly as in English.

'The song is about Gabriel going to Maria, and He gives His salutations, and He tells Her the news, that She will be the Mother of the God's son. And then, He says that You should not worry about it because God has chosen You, the person to create this great incarnation on this earth. And the third one, they say that when She was satisfied, she accepted the Son of God... Beautiful song in Marathi, it's a Christian song, as he says, but it's also a Sahaja Yoga song.'

Teri Belosi me aur nikhar āeńge

Have become enriched in their grandeur because of Your pure and selfless love

Jab Tu hi Tu basi hai ye dono jahāń

Since You and You alone are all-pervading in both the worlds

Lord of the Dance

English 2

E Dance, dance, wherever you may be
EB I am the Lord of the Dance, said He
E And I'll lead you all wherever you may be BEAE And I'll lead you all in the dance, said He

E I danced in the morning when the world was begun
EB I danced with the moon and the stars and the sun
E I came down from heaven and I danced on the Earth
BEAE At Bethlehem I had my birth

E I danced for the scribe and the pharisee
EB But they wouldn't dance and they wouldn't follow Me
E I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
BEAE And they came to Me and the dance went on

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
The 'holy people' they said it was a shame
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high
And left me there on a cross to die

I danced in the morning when the sky turned black
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone ...
But I am the dance and I still go on

They cut me down and I leapt up high
I am the life that will never never die
I'll live in you, if you'll live in Me
I am the Lord of the dance, said He

O Little Town Of Bethlehem

English 27

D G A D O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie
D G A D Above thy deep and dreamless sleep, the silent stars go by D ... A Yet in thy dark streets shineth the Everlasting Light
D G A D The hopes and fears of all the years, are met in thee tonight

D G A D O morning stars, together, proclaim the holy birth
D G A D And praises sing to God the King, and peace to men on earth
D ... A For Christ is born of Mary, and gathered all above
D G A D While mortals sleep the angels keep their watch of wondering love

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is giv'n
So God imparts to human hearts, the blessings of His heav'n
No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin
Where meek souls will receive Him still, the dear Christ enters in

O Holy Child of Bethlehem descend to us we pray
Cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us this day
We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell
O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel

Mataji jay

Spanish 1

Am G Mataji jay! Mataji, Mataji jay!
F Mataji, Mataji jay! (CHORUS)
E Mataji, Mataji jay!

Am E España tiene la suerte, Y dentro de España todos
E Am De que tu seas nuestra Madre, Con ese gran corazon!
Am G De que! De que tu seas nuestra Madre,
G F Con e! Con ese gran corazon
F E Que to! Que todo el que quiere cabe!

Venimos los espanoles, A ofrecernos en regalo
A madre y nuestros hermanos, Que siempre han ayudado
Que siem! Que siempre han ayudado
A que! A que España vaya entrando
Que buen! Que buen trabajo ha costado

Gracias, gracias, Madre! Por empenarte tanto
Para que nosotros, Tus ninos amados
De aqui, al fin aqui ... Hallamos llegado!

Que. Viva Mataji!

Spanish 2

Entre flores, emociones y alegrías
Nacio en nosotros la madre del amor
Solo en dios pudiera haber tanta belleza
Y es imposible que pueda haber dos
Y todo el mundo sabe que es verdad
Y ya todos la quieren adorar

Por eso se oye este refran: Que viva Mataji! (CHORUS)
La gente canta con fervor: Que viva Mataji!
La vida tiene otro color Que viva Mataji!
Llego y todo lo cambio, Mataji es la mejor!

En los dias luminosos de los pujas
Todos los ninos juntos frente a su altar
Sonriente y bondadosa, ella dispone

Con esa gracia de diosa maternal
El mundo con su brisa vibra ya
Empieza a despertar la humanidad

Que bonito es ser un sahaja yogi
Nadie resiste a ser un hermano mas
Y que bello es entregarse y renacer
Y cantar bhajans hasta el amanecer
Mataji ha siempre sido y sera
Eterna madre nuestra sin igual
